The Children's Country Home,
Corner Grant and Broad Branch Roads, D. C. This home is intended to give two weeks in the country to girls from four to fourteen years, who need the benefits of country air, and are unable to obtain it in any other way. One section of boys, from five to twelve years, will be taken in August. Each case will be investigated by the visitor before admission. Application for admission must be made to the visitor, Miss Gordon, Epiphany Chapel House, 230 Twelfth st. s. w., on Tuesday, June 14, and every Tuesday following, from 2 to 3:30 p. m. Miss Gordon will give cards of admission, without which no child can be admitted.

The following rules must be agreed to by applicants:
Rule 1. Each child must promise to stay at the home for at least a week.
Rule 2. Parents not allowed to visit the children except on Thursday of the second week of their stay.

Two Negroes Dismissed.
Because Policeman George Hilton, of the Seventh precinct, ordered Eldridge White and Charles Dorsey, negroes, from the corner of Thirtieth and N. streets, Georgetown, on Saturday night, they both turned upon him and assaulted him. Judge Kimball in the Police Court today did not think the arrest was justified and dismissed the two men.

Heavy Bond Demanded.
Five hundred dollars bond was asked by Judge Kimball in the Police Court today when he held Mary Holmes, a negro, for the action of the grand jury on a charge of abandoning her newly born babe. She left the child in a shoe box in her employer's work shed and it died. Judge Kimball said she left it in the shed but did not mean any harm.

Electrician Spanked Boy.
A penalty of $5 fine was imposed upon William Collins, an electrician, for making an assault and battery upon little "Jack" Dorsey, an eight-year-old lad. The electrician was working on Tenth Street northwest, and Jack and two other boys began tossing pebbles on his head. He slipped around and caught little Jack in a stooping posture, and paddled him with a small piece of board.

NEGRESS FINED AND SENT TO JAIL BY KIMBALL
When Esther Dent, a negress, was about to step off the good ship River Queen, on its arrival from Notley Hall, she put three beer glasses in the bosom of her waist. An employee of the boat company tried to get the glasses from her. She turned upon him and used abusive and profane language, and was arrested by Policeman Lester, of the Fourth precinct station.

In the Police Court today Judge Kimball imposed a fine of $50 on the negress for carrying beer on the boat, and a larceny case and added thirty days for the disorder.
